Procedures.

This field indicates what type of rule the agency is filing. It could be a newly proposed rule, an amendment to an existing rule, or a rescission.

This field indicates what action the agency is taking on the rule: Original filing; Revised Filing; Refiled Filing; To be Refiled (TBR) or Withdrawn filing.

If “Yes” appears in this field, the rule has an “Adverse Impact” on business as defined in O.R.C. 107.52 and thus was submitted to the Common Sense Initiative Office (CSIO) for evaluation prior to its filing with JCARR.

If “Yes” appears in this field, the rule has been reviewed by the filing agency using the criteria outlined in O.R.C. 106.03 & 106.031 and the entire rule is subject to review. If “No” appears here, then only the changes the agency is making to the rule is subject to JCARR review. A new rule will be blank. A rule exempt from FYR will show "Exempt" in this section.

The rule's current title. If the agency proposes changes to the rule title, they will not be reflected until the rule is final filed.

This is the date that the agency's public hearing is to be conducted. If the rule is promulgated pursuant to R.C. 111.15, no public hearing is required and this area will be blank.

Five Sections of the Agenda

Consent - JCARR is not aware of opposition testimony requesting motions to invalidate the proposed rules.

To Be Refiled - The filing agency has submitted notice to JCARR of its intention to refile the rule(s) at a later date.

Withdrawn - The filing agency has withdrawn the filing. This action removes the proposed filing from JCARR review.

Review - There has been indication at or prior to the JCARR meeting that individual(s) plan to testify before JCARR on the rule.

Rejection - JCARR has identified an Adverse Impact defined in R.C. 107.52 and the rule filing agency did not submit the rule to CSIO as required prior to filing.
